Please Note:World Café “Motivation and Performance Practices” Students’ Activity

The World Café methodology is a simple, effective, and flexible format for hosting large group dialogue. It is a creative process for leading collaborative dialogue, sharing knowledge, and creating possibilities for action in groups of all sizes. The technique builds on the notion of group intelligence.

In this activity, every learner will receive a topic (from Chapter 5 or 6) to prepare a short presentation to a group of students. A well-developed short PPT will be required.

This activity will be worth 10% of the total course mark.

Communication Challenge

This is a great exercise to help learners understand that we all hear and interpret things differently, even if we are given the exact same information.

Every participant will receive a card with multiple choice questions and correct answers. Students will be asking each other those questions. For every correct answer answering student will earn 2 points and for every wrong answer, the asking student will receive 1 point. The winner will receive a prize.

This activity will be worth 5% of the total course mark.

Professional Communication in Canadian Economy – Video Project

This activity will enable students to understand how significant cultural traits affect communications within organizations in the economy of a country. Students will develop a glossary of successful communication strategies used in a diverse Canadian workplace. Particular attention should be devoted to managing conflict and profiling individual expertise.

Our Class will participate in an academic virtual exchange with our partners At CFBC in St. Kitts and Nevis <https://cfbc.edu.kn/> During the semester we will be working with Professor Christine Walwyn MGMT2007 Organizational Behaviour class.

Learners will be assembled into groups. Every group will be tasked with creating a video presentation showcasing proper business etiquette in Canada focusing on verbal and nonverbal communication. Inspiration can be taken from previous communication challenge activities.

Before you attempt to create a video recording a considerable amount of time should be spent strategizing and researching this subject matter. Personal experience should be at the forefront of your research (please consider asking your parents, friends, or acquaintances from wide-ranging socioeconomic, ethnic, demographic backgrounds).

The final product for this activity will be a 3 to 5 minutes video (the length is only given as a broad guideline). This video must be uploaded into Moodle. We will be sharing our work with our Organizational Behaviour partner class at CFBC in St Kitts and Nevis.

This activity will be worth 15% of the total course mark.

Personal Reflection Paper

A reflection paper is your chance to add your thoughts and analysis to what you have read and experienced in this course. A reflection paper is meant to illustrate your understanding of the material and how it affects your ideas and possible practice in the future.

Pick a real experience from your life (school, work, home, etc) and using Organizational Behaviour theory explain your behaviour at that time. Having to study Human Behaviour, what should you have done differently? Was there room for improvement?

In 1000 to 1500 words, using all the knowledge gained in Communication courses (proper Business writing style and structure), please explain your position. A short PPT presentation should be created to be used during your in-class presentation. Please note that both, written work and PPT presentation must be uploaded into Moodle before the deadline. (PDF formats are not accepted).

This activity will be worth 10% of the total course mark.

Performance Requirements and Student Services

Student Responsibilities

It is your responsibility as a student to contact the Office of the Registrar to complete the forms for Withdrawal or Change of Registration, and any other forms. Please refer to the list of important dates as noted in the Academic Schedule in the Keyano College credit calendar. The Keyano College credit calendar also has information about Student Rights and Code of Conduct. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Code of Conduct Policies.

Student Attendance

Class attendance is useful for two reasons. First, class attendance maximizes a student's learning experience. Second, attending class is a good way to keep informed of matters relating to the administration of the course (e.g., the timing of assignments and exams). Ultimately, you are responsible for your own learning and performance in this course.

It is the responsibility of each student to be prepared for all classes. Students who miss classes are responsible for the material covered in those classes and for ensuring that they are prepared for the next class, including the completion of any assignments and notes that may be due.

Academic Misconduct

Students are considered to be responsible adults and should adhere to principles of intellectual integrity. Intellectual dishonesty may take many forms, such as:

- Plagiarism or the submission of another person's work as one's own;
- The use of unauthorized aids in assignments or examinations (cheating);
- Collusion or the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing work;
- The deliberate misrepresentation of qualifications;
- The willful distortion of results or data;
- Substitution in an examination by another person;
- Handing in the same unchanged work as submitted for another assignment; and
- Breach of confidentiality.

The consequences for academic misconduct range from a verbal reprimand to expulsion from the College. More specific descriptions and details are found in the Student Rights and Code of Conduct section of the Keyano College credit calendar. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Code of Conduct Policies.

In order to ensure your understanding of the concept of plagiarism, you must successfully complete the online tutorial found on ilearn.keyano.ca. Then print the certificate, sign it, and show it to each of your instructors. Your course work may not be graded until you show this signed certificate.
