A history OF THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The ceremonial mace, originally a weapon, has over the centuries become a symbol of order and authority. The ceremonial mace adds meaning and dignity to the commencement ritual. It reminds both participants and spectators that education is one of the most cherished attributes of a free and democratic society.

Keyano College's Ceremonial Mace, carried in academic processions, is a symbol of academic authority and a part of college history. The piece was commissioned in 2010.

The mace is 48 inches tall and was lathed using cherry wood; it weighs 3.6 kilograms. The base, pedestal, and headframe were crafted by Randy Ringheim, Instructor, Welding – School of Trades and Technology and showcases creativity within the trades. The headpiece was forged using traditional blacksmithing techniques and mild steel material.

The mace is on display during the year and is housed in a secure location in the Office of the Registrar.

The mace is carried by the Grand Marshall. Nadine Rimmer, Nursing & Allied Health Instructor, is a long-serving faculty member with over 15 years of service at Keyano College. She is a Keyano Alumni, having completed her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree at Keyano College. Each year during Convocation, Nadine has the privilege of cheering on graduates who were once her Nursing & Allied Health students. Nadine retired and then returned to teach on contract for the last 2 years. This year she is honoured to have been selected as the Grand Marshall for Convocation 2023.

HISTORY OF THE GOVERNOR GENERAL'S COLLEGIATE BRONZE ACADEMIC MEDAL

Recipient

JOSEPH DEFREITAS

Advanced Care Paramedic Diploma

Lord Dufferin, Canada's third Governor General after Confederation, created the Academic Medals in 1873 to encourage academic excellence across the nation. Over the years, they have become the most prestigious award that students in Canadian schools can receive.

For more than 140 years, the Governor General's Academic Medals have recognized the outstanding scholastic achievements of students in Canada. They are awarded to the student graduating with the highest average from a high school, as well as from approved college or university programs. Pierre Trudeau, Tommy Douglas, Kim Campbell, Robert Bourassa, Robert Stanfield and Gabrielle Roy are just some of the more than 50 000 people who have received the Governor General's Academic Medal as the start of a life of accomplishment.

Today, the Governor General's Academic Medals are awarded at four distinct levels: Bronze at the secondary school level; Collegiate Bronze at the post-secondary, diploma level; Silver at the undergraduate level; and Gold at the graduate level. Medals are presented on behalf of the Governor General by participating educational institutions, along with personalized certificates signed by the Governor General.

To maintain a spirit of universality across the country, the Directives were designed to ensure that the medals are awarded on academic marks only, regardless of the more intangible qualities of students' life, such as good citizenship, moral behaviour or popularity.

The COLLEGIATE BRONZE medal is awarded to the student who achieves the highest overall average upon graduation from a diploma-level, post-secondary program (minimum two-year, full-time duration)

Valedictorian

HANNIE LEE MARAAN

Early Learning & Child Care Certificate

Hannie is an international student from the Philippines pursuing the Early Learning and Child Care Diploma program.

She received a Bachelor's and Master's degree in Music Education from the University of Santo Tomas, and upon completing her postgraduate studies, she was awarded magna cum laude. Before continuing her education in Canada, she worked for over five years as a licensed music teacher to elementary and high school students.

She was also a choir director and a piano and guitar teacher in her home country.

Hannie's passion and purpose are to teach and empower young children to be creative, compassionate, and critical thinkers.

As part of her plans, she intends to pursue a postgraduate degree in education and open a music center for children in Alberta.

Greetings from CHAIR OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

This is a great day for Keyano College as hundreds of students cross the stage to accept their parchment.

Convocation is a time-honored tradition because of what it represents. For most who graduate today, this will be one of the most significant milestones of your life. It is the ending of something significant that could lead to something truly remarkable.

For students heading into the workforce, there is no better place to be than right here in Wood Buffalo. The number and breadth of opportunities available in this region are unlike anywhere else in Canada. We hope that you embrace the potential that exists for you as a Keyano College graduate; that potential is almost limitless.

Convocation focuses on celebrating your achievements, but it's essential to recognize and thank all your support systems who helped get you here: faculty and staff members, fellow students, family and friends. We know the role that encouragement and support play in facilitating student success.

On behalf of my colleagues on the Keyano College Board of Governors, congratulations on your achievements and all our best wishes as you begin the next exciting chapter of your life.

Don Scott

Chair, Board of Governors
Keyano College

Greetings from PRESIDENT & CEO

Dear Graduate

On behalf of Keyano College, it is my privilege to extend heartfelt congratulations on your convocation. This is truly a remarkable achievement, and you should be very proud of yourself for all the hard work and dedication that you put into your studies.

As you enter the work world always value learning and growth. Maintain a positive attitude and stay open-minded. And most importantly, believe in your abilities and continue to work hard toward your goals.

The faculty and staff of Keyano College have had the great privilege to have been part of your academic journey, and as you go forward, it is my hope that Keyano College will continue to be a part of your life in some way.

I have every confidence that you will continue to reach your academic, career, and life goals and I look forward to following your contributions to Wood Buffalo and beyond.

Jay Notay
President & CEO,
Keyano College

Greetings from VICE PRESIDENT ACADEMIC

Dear graduates, faculty members, and guests,

On behalf of Keyano College, I extend my warmest congratulations to our graduates on this momentous occasion. Today, we celebrate your academic achievements and recognize the hard work, dedication, and perseverance that have led to this significant milestone.

Your graduation from Keyano College is a testament to your strength, resilience, and commitment to your education. You have demonstrated a passion for learning, a thirst for knowledge, and a drive for success. As you move forward into the next phase of your life, I urge you to continue to pursue your passions, challenge yourself, and strive for excellence.

At Keyano College, we are committed to providing our students with an education that empowers them to impact their communities and the world positively. I have no doubt that our graduates will go on to do great things, and I look forward to seeing the incredible contributions you will make in your future careers. Please stay connected with us through our alumni department.

To the faculty and staff of Keyano College, I extend my gratitude for your dedication, support, and mentorship of our students. Your commitment to excellence has helped shape the lives and futures of our graduates, and we are grateful for your role in their success.

In closing, I offer my heartfelt congratulations to the Keyano College graduating class of 2023. Your determination has paid off, and we are proud to call you Keyano College alumni. Best wishes for a bright and successful future ahead.

Dr. Sandra Efu

Vice President, Academic & Student Experience

Greetings from SAKC PRESIDENT

Dear Graduates, On behalf of the SAKC team 2022-2023 academic year, I would like to extend our warmest congratulations to all the graduates on this special day. Your hard work, dedication, and perseverance have paid off, and we are honoured to be a part of your celebration. This ceremony marks an important milestone in your academic journey, and we recognize the sacrifices and challenges that you have overcome to reach this point. To all the domestic students who have embarked on this journey, we wish you all the best. To all the international students, we understand the sacrifice and investment you have made to make it thus far. To that, we say "Cheers we made it". As you move forward, we hope that the knowledge, experience and skills you have gained at Keyano College will serve you well in your future endeavours. We hope that you all will stay within the RMWB community and continue to make a positive impact on our society. "Our mind is like a bank, anything we deposit is what we will withdraw". Stay positive and move forward in faith. Once again, congratulations!

Jason Smith

Greetings from MAYOR

Congratulations to the Class of 2023!

On behalf of the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo, I commend you on your graduation and hope that you take this time to reflect and celebrate on your accomplishments at Keyano College.

As you think about what's next, I hope you consider living and working here, whether it's now or someday down the road. This is a place of tremendous opportunity, and you are always welcome to be a part of it.

As you capture some more memories this week, I know you will take time to thank everyone that supported your growth. I trust that your journey at Keyano College and as part of our region has prepared you to face any and all challenges, with great opportunities being just around the corner.

Again, congratulations to you, the Class of 2023. I wish you all the best with whatever life throws your way.

Sincerely,

Sandy Bowman

Mayor

Greetings from

PARLIAMENTARY SECRETARY FOR RURAL HEALTH
& MINISTER OF JOBS,
ECONOMY, AND NORTHERN DEVELOPMENT

Congratulations to the 2023 Keyano College Graduating Class.

We salute your accomplishment and applaud your resolve in obtaining this well-earned milestone.

Your convocation is a conclusion designed to highlight several years of hard work through lectures, study, papers, tests, and examinations. It is also a beginning of sorts, marking a new, yet unexplored chapter in your lives moving forward.

This graduation is yet another of the many achievements you have attained, and challenges you have faced, then conquered. These years of grind and struggle, of applying yourselves and persevering, have better prepared you for a competitive world, where you will be able to choose your own rewards.

When you leave Keyano College you take the knowledge and experience you have gained and apply it to many opportunities now open to you. But you also leave something of yourselves behind. You leave the spirit of your passage. It remains to reinforce the walls and the commitment of those who have helped prepare you.

It has been said that two of the hardest things in life, are to say hello for the first time, and goodbye for the last. Consider this a farewell until we meet again.

The memories and friendships you have made here, will accompany you wherever you go. Those are the things that do not hinge on distance or time, but depends on the strength of the heart.

As you travel forward, remember the lessons you have learned. Be the inspiration of those who follow you. Strive to widen the narrow perspectives you encounter. Continue to contribute to making the world a better place. Anything worth doing, is worth doing well.

Once again, we offer my congratulations to each one of you. As you move forward remember that the most significant battles are hard won. When a door closes, another one inevitably opens. Do not dwell too long on the closing doors, as you may miss the ones opening before you.

Tany Yao, MLA

Parliamentary Secretary for Rural Health

Brian Jean, MLA

Minister of Jobs, Economy, and Northern Development

Greetings from
MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT
FORT MCMURRAY-COLD LAKE

Congratulations to the Keyano College graduating class of 2023 on the achievement of this well-earned milestone.

Your graduation signals a time when students, their families, and teachers have an opportunity to both reminisce and look forward to the exciting and unwritten journey that lies ahead.

As you have transitioned from college students to college graduates, you've acquired the knowledge and tools that will prepare you as you make your mark in this great, big world.

When you look back to remember all it took to make it here – the all-nighters during finals, the office hours visits, the academic trials, and tribulations – I hope you realize this same hard work and perseverance will serve you in the pursuit of your dreams.

As you have experienced, it won't always be easy.

Sometimes we can resent life's challenges and wonder if we've bitten off more than we can chew. Your passion and the power created from focusing on your true potential will lead you right back to your destiny.

Nelson Mandela once said: "There is no passion to be found in playing small, in settling for a life that is less than the one you are capable of living."

When we believe we cannot have what we desire—when we lack faith in ourselves and in the goodness of life—we settle for less. However, when we stand in the truth of our purpose, that we can and will have what we really want - opportunity will rise to meet you.

You will know when you find your calling. Keep looking until you find it because you don't deserve half a percentage less joy.

After every lesson, we are obliged to strive again for success, and when faced with the end of one thing, we must weave hope and build something new and better.

During your next adventure, don't forget to ask questions, take risks, and make mistakes, but always be learning.

As you go forth into your future careers and studies, do so with integrity, compassion, and curiosity. But for now, take time to celebrate. You've earned it.

Congratulations.
