

BUS 102E, Interpersonal Skills for Business

3 credits/2 hours lecture, 1 hour tutorial

Develops the interpersonal communication skills that managers need in order to function effectively in the contemporary organization. Making extensive use of behavioural simulation techniques such as role-playing and group problem-solving, students will learn active listening, conflict-management, persuasion, delegating and other general purpose skills. The course will also deal with the specialized skills and techniques needed in performance appraisal, discipline, group meeting, and goal-setting situations.

Course Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student shall be able to:

- Develop self-awareness or self-knowledge as the starting point for effectiveness at work. The following concepts, skills, and issues are used to support this Outcome:
 - Take assessments such as the Emotional Intelligence test and Learning Styles assessments to determine strategies for personal success.
 - Determine your strengths and understand how they might guide you in personal and professional choices.
 - Assess your limitations and develop a self-improvement plan for improving in these areas.
- Gain understanding and insight into your personality, attitudes, and behaviours. The following concepts, skills, and issues are used to support this Outcome:
 - Use the Personality Dimensions instruments to assess your own interpersonal style and the styles of two classmates or coworkers.
 - Write a short report to document your analysis.
- Present yourself effectively in job search settings and set appropriate life and career goals. The following concepts, skills, and issues are used to support this Outcome:
 - Apply goal setting and time management strategies to maximize use of time and career networking.
 - Identify personal job related skills.
 - Learn how to answer behavioural descriptive interview questions.
 - Participate as both an interviewer and a candidate in mock job interviews.
- Work on team building skills (e.g., active listening, encouraging candor, maintaining a cooperative and collaborative environment). The following concepts, skills, and issues are used to support this Outcome:
 - Work on developing effective relationships with others.
 - Recognize and manage sensitive interpersonal situations.
 - Develop strategies to manage conflict through role plays and simulations.
 - Understand the value of diversity in our workplaces and communities.
 - Analyze a movie on a diversity theme and make a team presentation on this topic.
- Plan, organize, and complete a service project in the community or college to promote volunteerism and commitment to community activism. The following concepts, skills, and issues are used to support this Outcome:
 - Manage your team and project effectively.
 - Engage in fund raising activities as required to fulfill your objectives.
 - Increase productivity through use of effective goal setting and time management strategies.
 - Increase your ability to contribute to organizations, your community, and your family.

Evaluation

Your grade in this course will be derived as follows:

Mid-term Exam	15%

The minimum standard for passing this course is a grade of D (50%).

Notes on Course Evaluation

Assignments: There will be two assignments in this course that will require significant time to conduct/write outside of class. The first of these will be handed out on September 19 (due on Tues., Oct. 3) and will involve the determination of the “interpersonal styles” of two other people you have on-going contact with, along with the integration of this information into your self-awareness of your own interpersonal style and personality dimensions. The second assignment is a Team PowerPoint presentation on a diversity theme. You will be given a choice of a number of films to analyze. The second assignment will be handed out on October 24 and will be due on November 21. Team members must present the PowerPoint with the team in order to receive a mark. Team service projects to help a community organization are also a required component of the course. Each team will select its own team members and choose the organization the members wish to help. Volunteering time and raising money for an organization are equally worthwhile activities, and some teams may wish to do a combination of both activities.

Hand in Deadlines: Assignments are due at the beginning of the class indicated above. If your assignment is going to be late, please make arrangements with me in advance in class or via e-mail or you will be penalized 10% of the value of that assignment per day. No late assignments will be accepted once the instructor has marked and returned the assignment in question. No exceptions!

Service Projects, Peer Marking of Role Plays, Mark for Tutorial Participation, and Mark for Lecture Attendance and Participation in Moodle Discussions: As much of the value the student will receive from this course is “experiential,” in-class participation will comprise a significant part of the mark for this course. A mark of 10% will be allocated to each of the following components of class participation: 1) peer evaluations of role plays; 2) contribution to Moodle forums/class activities; and 3) online quizzes. The student’s service project participation and self-evaluation grade in the project will be worth 10%. An outline will be provided at the end of the term for the evaluations. A final PowerPoint summary of the service project will be worth 5% of the term mark. Classroom and tutorial activities include videos, role plays, self-evaluations, and group problem-solving exercises.

Examinations: The Examinations will consist of a mixture of Definitions, Multiple Choice and True/False Questions, and Short and Long Answer Essay Questions. The Mid-term will be approximately two hours in duration and is tentatively scheduled for Week 6. The Final is a three-hour examination (exam schedule will be posted later in the semester).

Teaching and Learning Methodologies

Students use the VARK learning assessment tools in this class to determine if they are Visual, Auditory, Kinesthetic/Tactile, ReadWrite, or Multimodal learners. This class appeals to the various learning styles by including lectures, PowerPoints, text-based modules, Moodle discussions/forums, videos, role plays, self-evaluations, and group problem-solving exercises. Participation on the Moodle discussions/forums is a required component of the course.

Performance Requirements

Student Responsibilities

It is your responsibility as a student to contact the Office of the Registrar to complete the forms for Withdrawal or Change of Registration, and any other forms. Please refer to the list of important dates as noted in the Academic Schedule in the Keyano College credit calendar.

More specific details are found in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct section of the Keyano College credit calendar. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct Policies.

Student Attendance

Class attendance is useful for two reasons. First, class attendance maximizes a student's learning experience. Second, attending class is a good way to keep informed of matters relating to the administration of the course (e.g., the timing of assignments and exams). Ultimately, you are responsible for your own learning and performance in this course.

It is the responsibility of each student to be prepared for all classes. Students who miss classes are responsible for the material covered in those classes and for ensuring that they are prepared for the next class, including the completion of any assignments and / or notes that may be due.

Academic Misconduct

Students are considered to be responsible adults and should adhere to principles of intellectual integrity. Intellectual dishonesty may take many forms, such as:

- Plagiarism or the submission of another person's work as one's own
- The use of unauthorized aids in assignments or examinations (cheating)
- Collusion or the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing work
- The deliberate misrepresentation of qualifications
- The willful distortion of results or data
- Substitution in an examination by another person
- Handing in the same unchanged work as submitted for another assignment
- Breach of confidentiality.

The consequences for academic misconduct range from a verbal reprimand to expulsion from the College. More specific descriptions and details are found in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct section of the Keyano College credit calendar. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct Policies.

In order to ensure your understanding of the concept of plagiarism, you must successfully complete the online tutorial found on ilearn.keyano.ca. Then print the certificate, sign it, and show it to each of your instructors. Your course work will not be graded until you show this signed certificate.

Specialized Supports

Counselling and Accessibility Services

Counselling Services provides a wide range of specialized counselling services to prospective and registered students, including personal, career and academic counselling.

SKILL Centre

The SKILL Centre is a learning space in the Clearwater Campus at Keyano College where students can gather to share ideas, collaborate on projects and get new perspectives on learning from our tutorial staff.

The SKILL Centre, through a variety of delivery methods, provides assistance in skill development to Keyano students. Assistance is provided by instructors, staff and student tutors. Individuals wishing to improve their mathematics, writing, grammar, study, or other skills, can take advantage of this unique service.
