BUS 130 – Introductory Financial Accounting I
3 Credits, 5 hours per week

An introduction to the subject of accounting will be provided. The major objective of BUS 130 and BUS 131 is to foster an understanding of accounting and the way it serves in developing useful information which will provide a basis for sound business decisions. Topics of study include the procedural matters relating to the complete double entry accounting cycle, including special journals, subsidiary and general ledgers, worksheets and the preparation of financial statements.

Performance Requirements

1. Cellular Phones
   All cellular phones are to be turned off or set on silent mode prior to the beginning of class time.

2. Student Attendance
   It is the responsibility of each student to be prepared for all classes. Students who miss classes are responsible for the material covered in those classes and for ensuring that they are prepared for the next class, including the completion of any assignments that may be due.

3. Academic Misconduct (page 37-38 of the Credit Calendar)
   Students are considered to be responsible adults and should adhere to principles of intellectual integrity. Intellectual dishonesty may take many forms, such as
   - Plagiarism or the submission of another person’s work as one’s own
   - The use of unauthorized aids in assignments or examinations (cheating)
   - Collusion or the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing work
   Penalties for academic offences may range from a verbal reprimand to dismissal from the College and, in certain circumstances, may involve legal action.

4. Accommodation for Students with Disabilities (page 47 of the Credit Calendar)
   The College will provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities in order to promote academic success. If you require accommodation, immediately contact the Learner Assistance Program Office at 792-5608 to initiate the process for documenting, assessing and implementing your individual accommodation needs. In addition, tutoring services are available at the SKILL Centre (Room 119).

Due Dates

Late assignments will be penalized 10% per day. No late assignments will be accepted once the instructor has marked and returned the assignment in question (unless there are extenuating circumstances such as illness or death in the family).

Assignments

All assignments must be submitted in hard copy unless otherwise instructed. Participation on Moodle and McGraw-Hill Connect is a required component of the course. Please pay careful attention to the information on Academic Misconduct and Discipline for behaviour such as cheating and plagiarism. The penalty for such behaviour is a zero on the assignment and no opportunity to resubmit the assignment.
