BUS 272 E, Industrial Relations

3 Credits, 16 weeks, 3 hours

Official course description
Dealing with the interaction of unions and employers in the framework of collective bargaining, this specialized Human Resource Management course focuses on the three key activities included in the Industrial Relations system: union certification, contract negotiations and grievance administration. Additional topics include the evolution of labour law, the structure and development of the Canadian labour movement, and industrial relations in the public sector. The course makes use of case discussions and bargaining simulation exercises in addition to the lecture/discussion method.

Performance Requirements

1. Student Attendance
   Class attendance is useful for two reasons. First, class attendance maximizes a students’ learning experience. Second, attending class is a good way to keep informed of matters relating the administration of the course (e.g., the timing of assignments and exams). Ultimately, you are responsible for your own learning and performance in this course. Please refer to the Credit Calendar for current regulation.

   It is the responsibility of each student to be prepared for all classes. Students who miss classes are responsible for the material covered in those classes and for ensuring that they are prepared for the next class, including the completion of any assignments and / or notes that may be due.

2. Academic Misconduct (refer to the Current Credit Calendar)
   Students are considered to be responsible adults and should adhere to principles of intellectual integrity. Intellectual dishonesty may take many forms, such as:
   2.1. Plagiarism or the submission of another person’s work as one’s own
   2.2. The use of unauthorized aids in assignments or examinations (cheating)
   2.3. Collusion or the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing work
   2.4. The deliberate misrepresentation of qualifications
   2.5. The willful distortion of results or data
   2.6. Substitution in an examination by another person

   Penalties for academic offences may range from a verbal reprimand to dismissal from the College, and in certain circumstances may involve legal action.

3. Accommodation for Students with Disabilities
   The College will provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities in order to promote academic success. If you require accommodation, contact the Learner Assistance Program Office at 792-5608 to initiate the process for documenting, assessing and implementing your individual accommodation needs. In addition, tutoring services are available at the SKILL Centre (Room 119).
