Hours of Instruction:

Practicum hours vary depending on when the student is in their practicum placement.

Course Description:

Students have an opportunity to put theory into practice by working with children in the Keyano Play Program as well as community settings including kindergarten and primary grade classes. The student must provide his/her own transportation to assigned Practicum's; keep a time sheet, and daily record of progression in the Practicum booklet. A Practicum may be repeated or extended when deemed necessary by the ELCC/EA department.

3 credit, 45 weeks, 120 hours

The co-requisite for this course are: EA 125, EA 104 Guiding Children's Behaviour; EA 101 Child Development 1 and one other first year courses.

Required Resources:

Practicum Workbook (REPROPACK)

Course Outcomes:

At the completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Implement necessary work habits to be successful in the classroom environment.
- Demonstrate professionalism by: maintaining confidentiality, inquiring about the program and program policies, communicating in an effective manner, participating as a team member and using feedback for improving practice.
- Take progressively more initiative for staff responsibilities and routines, contributing ideas/resources and planning for children's learning experiences.
- Apply Health Safety understandings and practices personally and through the daily supervision of children.
- Demonstrate a willingness to listen and speak to children as an interested partner in communication.
- Use a problem-solving guidance approach as discussed in ELCC/EA 104.
- Observe, support and record children's academic progress through the adaptations of materials and learning resources.
- Observe and work within the developmental abilities of individual children.

Evaluation:

Evaluation for EA 110 is done on a Pass /Fail basis.

Skills and responsibilities increase in complexity throughout the practicum. Discussions between student, sponsor teacher, and college consultant will allow the student to set goals for continuing development. Each student will keep track of her/his progress in a practicum skills booklet and demonstrate understanding by keeping quality, dated records in the practicum booklet. College consultants will review booklets regularly. Sponsor teachers will be asked to provide feedback.
