Room 216

Course Description:

This course provides a weekly forum to support and debrief practicum experiences and explore the integration of theory with practice. The types of early childhood programs, the legislation governing those programs and the responsibilities and ethical behavior of early childhood professionals will be discussed. Students will be introduced to resource files as a method of organizing professional information and curriculum ideas.

1 credit, 15 weeks, 15 hours

The co-requisite for this course is ELCC 110

Required Resources:

Copple, C. & Bredekamp, S. Eds. (2009). Developmentally appropriate practice in early childhood programs: Serving children from birth through age 8. Washington, DC: NAEYC

Practicum Booklet (REPROPACK)

Recommended Resources:

Flash drive Storage
Access to a digital camera
3 ring Binder

Course Outcomes:

At the completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Recognize and demonstrate the professional attitudes and behavior required for a successful practicum experience.
- Discuss and analyze the components of the practicum experience.
- Use resources to compare and contrast observed policies and practices in the E.L.C.C. field for congruence with developmentally appropriate practice and personal belief system.
- Recognize the role of the Early Learning professional within a multidisciplinary team.

Evaluation:

In accordance with Keyano College policy, Practicum courses are a PASS/FAIL course. A student must succeed in both Practicum I (ELCC 110) and Practicum Seminar I (ELCC 125) in order to receive a passing grade in both.

Performance Requirements:

Group participation is a major component of the seminar; therefore regular attendance is required. Attendance of less than 80% without confirmation of extenuating circumstances and arrangements to address missed practicum content in an alternate way will result in a failing grade.

Specialized Supports & Duty to Accommodate:Disability Support Services: Learner Assistance Program

If you have a documented disability or you think that you would benefit from some assistance from a Disabilities Counsellor, please call or visit the Disability Supports Office 780-792-5608 to book an appointment (across from the library). Services and accommodations are intended to assist you in your program of study, while maintaining the academic standards of Keyano College. We can be of assistance to you in disclosing your disability to your instructor, providing accommodations, and supporting your overall success at Keyano College.

Specialized Supports and Duty to Accommodate

Specialized Support and Duty to Accommodate are aligned with the office of Disability Support Services: Learner Assistance Program (LAP) guided by federal and provincial human rights legislation, and defined by a number of Keyano College policies. Keyano College is obligated by legislation to provide disability-related accommodations to students with identified disabilities to the point of undue hardship.
