Response Essays: Students are required to complete a series of 4 short essays of 2-3 pages each in which they explore that week's reading in greater detail. Response papers are to be written about the readings in advance of classroom discussion. These essays should advance an argument about the text. These four essays are to be written at your discretion throughout the semester, however, only one paper can be submitted at a time and at least one response essay must be submitted by the week of Feb. 18. Marked out of 5; handed in at the beginning of the first class of the week. Participation in the Arts and Humanities Conference may be deemed equivalent to one response paper.

Research Essay: For this assignment, you will be expected to write a detailed, well researched, thesis driven essay on a text or texts from the course. This essay should demonstrate your mastery of the text(s), your ability to effectively integrate your research into your writing, a familiarity with the current critical discourses surrounding your topic, and your ability to write at the university level. This assignment also includes a proposal where you will articulate what you intend to write about and how you intend to go about it (this should include a sense of what your thesis will end up being). The proposal also includes an annotated bibliography in which you list no less than five good secondary sources with annotations indicating what they are and why they are useful to your project. This assignment will conform to MLA guidelines for research papers.
Your proposal is subject to my approval; no essay that has not received my approval at the proposal stage will be accepted for grading. Length: Proposal 1-2 pgs + Annotated Bibliography; Final Essay 6-8 pgs.

Poetic Archaeology Assignment: Students will work in groups of 3 or 4 in order to produce either a document that combines excerpts from a document from Canadian history (see Moodle for suggestions) with personal responses/autobiography and creative work such as poetic fragments; or, a 5-15 minute short film about one of the poems from the course. The goal is to produce a text that comments on Canadian history, personal history and contemporary Canadian culture/society through a textual mosaic or collage. Students are expected to use the readings by Robert Kroetsch and Margaret Atwood as models for approaching this assignment. As part of this assignment, students will be expected to evaluate themselves and their group members. This self and peer evaluation will be weighted against Dr. Cox’s evaluation of your work. An evaluation form will be provided. Class time will be provided for you to work on this assignment the week of March 25.
Further Models for this assignment: Walter Benjamin, The Arcades Project; Christopher Dewdney, A Palaeozoic Geology of London, Ontario; Adeena Karasick, Dyssemia Sleaze; Michael Ondaatje, The Collected Works of Billy the Kid; Daphne Marlatt, Steveston; Agee and Evans Let us now praise famous men; Dorothy Livesay, Call My People Home; Dorothy Livesay, The Documentaries; Dorothy Livesay, Right Hand Left Hand

Examinations: The final exam will be two hours in length and written during the University Studies examination period. It will involve a combination of short-answer questions and essay questions.

IMPORTANT NOTES

Students are expected to attend all lectures, to arrive on time and to remain for the duration of the class. You owe it to yourself, to the other students and to me as your instructor to attend regularly and punctually. If you are unable to attend, it is courteous to contact me in advance.

Once you’ve decided to stay in this course, follow through on your commitment and be here: physically, mentally, and emotionally. Don’t review other notes, reorganize your binder, carry on private conversations, text, check messages, or otherwise disengage from lectures, discussions, or small group or individual work during English class. Your cell phone must be turned OFF and put away during class. If your phone rings during class, you will be asked to leave the room, and you will have to meet with me and with the Department chair before you’ll be allowed to return.

Late Policy: Late work will be accepted, however, it will be penalized at a rate of 10%/Business Day. If it is turned in a week or more late, it will not be accepted. It should also be noted that late material will receive no feedback from the instructor. It is your responsibility to meet the due dates for the assigned material.
Standards for Written Assignments: Learning how to follow house style sheets is one of the most important skills a writer can develop. To aid you in your quest to learn these skills I have provided a document entitled “Standards for Written Assignments” on Moodle. If your paper does not conform to these standards, expect to lose marks.

All work must be TYPED, double spaced, and have proper MLA documentation (unless instructed otherwise). Do NOT submit work to me by e-mail. Hard copies are not only preferred, they are required. Be sure to keep a copy of any essay that you hand in.
