COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course introduces students to post-secondary studies in English by exploring developments in language, literature, and culture in and over time. Students will have opportunities to study particular themes and compare different genres in and across a broad array of texts, placed in their historical contexts, which may range from medieval to contemporary times. The course will examine the conditions under which texts were originally produced and may consider the reception and reshaping of texts in history to the present.

PRE-REQUISITE(S):

English 30-1 or equivalent

COURSE OUTCOMES:

The student will be able to:

1. write clear, coherent, University-level prose
2. analyze texts by applying basic principles of literary interrogation
3. cite references by using standard MLA style

REQUIRED RESOURCES:

The Longman Anthology of British Literature, 4th ed. Vol 1 A: The Middle Ages
The Concise Canadian Writer's Handbook
 John Gardner, Grendel

GRADING SYSTEM:

Letter Grade	Description	Grade Points
A+		4
A	Excellent	4
A-		3.7
B+		3.3
B	Good	3
B-		2.7
C+		2.3
C	Satisfactory	2
C-		1.7
D+		1.3
D	Minimal Pass	1
F	Failure	0

Students intending to transfer to other institutions require a ‘C-’ as a minimum grade.

Transfer information on each course is available at the Alberta Council on Admission and Transfers.

Throughout the course, you will complete a total of ten informal writing assignments and ten reading quizzes. Informal writing may involve responding to questions in paragraph form in class; researching and writing responses to questions outside class; or writing a personal/creative response to an assigned reading. I will not mark the informal writing, but I will comment on it and note it as “done” or “not done.” In order to achieve credit for the quizzes, you must achieve a minimum standard on each. Quizzes and in-class writing will NOT necessarily be announced in advance.

Details will be provided about the Forum and Arts Conference grades.

Essays must be submitted on the due date, which is always a Thursday. Essays handed in on Friday lose 10% until 3 p.m., after which they will be REFUSED. NO essays will be accepted after 3 p.m. on Friday. Extensions will NOT be granted except under circumstances of bereavement or documented illness. Computer or printer failure is seldom an acceptable reason for granting an extension.

Essays must be double spaced in 12-pt Times New Roman font and submitted with proper MLA documentation. Do NOT submit essays to me by e-mail. It is always preferable to hand an essay to me directly. Be sure to keep a copy of any essay that you hand in.

Students should consult:

ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY

Students are expected to attend all lectures, to arrive on time and to remain for the duration of the class. You owe it to yourself, to the other students and to me as your instructor to attend regularly and punctually. If you are unable to attend, it is courteous to contact me in advance.

Once you've decided to stay in this course, follow through on your commitment and be here: physically, mentally, and emotionally. Don't review other notes, reorganize your binder, carry on private conversations, text, check messages, or otherwise disengage from lectures, discussions, or small group or individual work during English class. Your cell phone must be turned OFF and put away during class. If your phone rings during class, you will be asked to leave the room, and you will have to meet with me and with the Department chair before you'll be allowed to return.

IMPORTANT DATES:

COLLEGE POLICIES:

Equality, Equity and Respect

The Keyano College is committed to providing an environment of equality, equity and respect for all people within the College community. All members of this community are considered partners in developing teaching and learning contexts that are welcoming to all. Faculty, staff, and students are encouraged to use inclusive language to create a classroom atmosphere in which students' experiences and views are treated with equal respect and valued in relation to their gender, ethnic and cultural background, and sexual orientation.

Students should consult:

Plagiarism and Cheating

Every student expects to be treated and evaluated fairly in a course. Plagiarism and cheating robs everyone of this right.

No student may submit words, ideas or data of another student or person as his or her own in any writing, project, assignment, quiz, electronic presentation, exam etc. Any work used that is not the student's own must be clearly cited as belonging to someone else. There are penalties for using other's work and not citing it. The Student's Rights & Responsibilities document clearly outlines these penalties and the appeal process.

- No learner can obtain information from another student during an exam.
- No learner can bring unauthorized information (paper or electronic) into an exam or quiz.
- No student can submit work done in another course for grading in this course without the written prior approval of the course instructor.
- No student can submit copyright protected or commercially produced materials as part or all of an assignment without proper citation & permission.

Student Rights & Responsibilities

Students should consult the Keyano College Credit Calendar or online at:

Specialized Supports and Duty to Accommodate

Disability Support Services: Learner Assistance Program

If you have a documented disability or you think that you would benefit from some assistance from a Disabilities Counsellor, please call or visit the Disability Supports Office 780-792-5608 to book an appointment (across from the library). Services and accommodations are intended to assist you in your program of study, while maintaining the academic standards of Keyano College. We can be of assistance to you in disclosing your disability to your instructor, providing accommodations, and supporting your overall success at Keyano College.

Specialized Supports and Duty to Accommodate

Specialized Support and Duty to Accommodate are aligned with the office of Disability Support Services: Learner Assistance Program (LAP) guided by federal and provincial human rights legislation, and defined by a number of Keyano College policies. Keyano College is obligated by legislation to provide disability-related accommodations to students with identified disabilities to the point of undue hardship.

DID I MISS ANYTHING?

Question frequently asked by students after missing a class

Nothing. When we realized you weren't here we sat with our hands folded on our desks
in silence, for the full two hours

Everything. I gave an exam worth 40 per cent of the grade for this term
and assigned some reading due today
on which I'm about to hand out a quiz worth 50 per cent.

Nothing. None of the content of this course has value or meaning
Take as many days off as you like:
any activities we undertake as a class
I assure you will not matter either to you or me
and are without purpose

Everything. A few minutes after we began last time a shaft of light descended and an angel or other heavenly being appeared and revealed to us what each woman or man must do to attain divine wisdom in this life and the hereafter
This is the last time the class will meet before we disperse to bring this good news to all people
on earth

Nothing. When you are not present
how could something significant occur?

Everything. Contained in this classroom is a microcosm of human existence assembled for you to query and examine and ponder
This is not the only place such an opportunity has been gathered

but it was one place

And you weren't here
