COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course introduces students to post-secondary studies in English by exploring developments in language, literature, and culture in and over time. Students will have opportunities to study particular themes and compare different genres in and across a broad array of texts, placed in their historical contexts, which may range from medieval to contemporary times. The course will examine the conditions under which texts were originally produced and may consider the reception and reshaping of texts in history to the present.

PRE-REQUISITE(S):

English 30 or 30-1 or equivalent.

COURSE OUTCOMES:

The successful student will be able to:

1. Generate meaning from literary discourse
2. Perform close readings at a university level
3. Write scholarly argumentative essays in the MLA notational style
4. Discuss modern literature cogently

REQUIRED RESOURCES:

Bennett and Brown. An Anthology of Canadian Literature in English. 3rd Ed. Oxford
 Richler, Mordecai. Barney's Version. Vintage.

Recommended:

MLA Handbook for Writer's of Research Papers. 7th Ed.

This course is supported through Moodle. Assignments, readings and handouts will be posted on Moodle. Login information will be provided by your instructor. For further instructions please see the Moodle handout.

EVALUATION:

Assignment	Percentage	Due Date
Response papers	20%	Ongoing
Proposal	10%	February 4, 2013
Research Essay	30%	March 18, 2013
Poetic Archaeology Assn	10%	April 5, 2013
Final Examination	30%	TBD

Response Essays: Students are required to complete a series of 4 short essays of 2-3 pages each in which they explore that week's reading in greater detail. Response papers are to be written about the readings in advance of classroom discussion. These essays should advance an argument about the text. These four essays are to be written at your discretion throughout the semester, however, only one paper can be submitted at a time and at least one response essay must be submitted by the week of Feb. 18. Marked out of 5; handed in at the beginning of the first class of the week. Participation in the Arts and Humanities Conference may be deemed equivalent to one response paper.

Research Essay: For this assignment, you will be expected to write a detailed, well researched, thesis driven essay on a text or texts from the course. This essay should demonstrate your mastery of the text(s), your ability to effectively integrate your research into your writing, a familiarity with the current critical discourses surrounding your topic, and your ability to write at the university level. This assignment also includes a proposal where you will articulate what you intend to write about and how you intend to go about it (this should include a sense of what your thesis will end up being). The proposal also includes an annotated bibliography in which you list no less than five good secondary sources with annotations indicating what they are and why they are useful to your project. This assignment will conform to MLA guidelines for research papers. Your proposal is subject to my approval; no essay that has not received my approval at the proposal stage will be accepted for grading. Length: Proposal 1-2 pgs + Annotated Bibliography; Final Essay 6-8 pgs.

Poetic Archaeology Assignment: Students will work in groups of 3 or 4 in order to produce a document that combines excerpts from a document from Canadian history (see Moodle for suggestions) with personal responses/autobiography and creative work such as poetic fragments. The goal is to produce a text that comments on Canadian history, personal history and contemporary Canadian culture/society through a textual mosaic or collage. Students are expected to use the readings by Robert Kroetsch and Margaret Atwood as models for approaching this assignment. As part of this assignment, students will be expected to evaluate themselves and their group members. This self and peer evaluation will be weighted against Dr. Cox's evaluation of your work. An evaluation form will be provided. Class time will be provided for you to work on this assignment the week of March 25.

Further Models for this assignment: Walter Benjamin, The Arcades Project; Christopher Dewdney, A Palaeozoic Geology of London, Ontario; Adeena Karasick, Dyssemia Sleaze; Michael Ondaatje, The Collected Works of Billy the Kid; Daphne Marlatt, Steveston; Agee and Evans Let us now praise famous men; Dorothy Livesay, Call My People Home; Dorothy Livesay, The Documentaries; Dorothy Livesay, Right Hand Left Hand

Examinations: The final exam will be two hours in length and written during the University Studies examination period. It will involve a combination of short-answer questions and essay questions.

IMPORTANT NOTES

Late Policy: Late work will be accepted, however, it will be penalized at a rate of 10%/Business Day. If it is turned in a week or more late, it will not be accepted. It should also be noted that late material will receive no feedback from the instructor. It is your responsibility to meet the due dates for the assigned material.

Preparation: Unless explicitly told otherwise, you are expected to have read all of the material for a given week by the beginning of the first class period of that week. This is imperative for you to be able to understand the lecture and contribute to the class discussion. If you prove to be unprepared for class, you may be asked to leave.

Attendance is taken at the beginning of each class. You are expected to be in your seat and ready to learn when attendance is taken. Please endeavour to be in each and every class as not attending carries with it a multitude of consequences (How can you learn the material if you aren't there to hear it? Or, for that, matter what your colleagues have to say about it?)

Standards for Written Assignments: Learning how to follow house style sheets is one of the most important skills a writer can develop. To aid you in your quest to learn these skills I have provided a document entitled “Standards for Written Assignments” on Moodle. If your paper does not conform to these standards, expect to lose marks.

Electronic Devices: No cell phones, ipods etc. should be out, on or audible during class time. If I see you using one of these electronic devices I will ask you to leave class for the remainder of the period.

PLEASE REMEMBER TO TALK WITH ME. If you are experiencing difficulty with the material, I can’t help if you don’t let me know. If you are going to miss class or a due date for a legitimate reason I will accommodate you if possible, but only if I know.

Plagiarism and Cheating

Every student expects to be treated and evaluated fairly in a course. Plagiarism and cheating robs everyone of this right.

No student may submit words, ideas or data of another student or person as his or her own in any writing, project, assignment, quiz, electronic presentation, exam etc. Any work used that is not the student's own must be clearly cited as belonging to someone else. There are penalties for using other's work and not citing it. The Student's Rights & Responsibilities document clearly outlines these penalties and the appeal process.

- No learner can obtain information from another student during an exam.
- No learner can bring unauthorized information (paper or electronic) into an exam or quiz.
- No student can submit work done in another course for grading in this course without the written prior approval of the course instructor.
- No student can submit copyright protected or commercially produced materials as part or all of an assignment without proper citation & permission.

Student Rights & Responsibilities

Students should consult the Keyano College Credit Calendar or online at:

Specialized Supports and Duty to Accommodate

Disability Support Services: Learner Assistance Program

If you have a documented disability or you think that you would benefit from some assistance from a Disabilities Counsellor, please call or visit the Disability Supports Office 780-792-5608 to book an appointment (across from the library). Services and accommodations are intended to assist you in your program of study, while maintaining the academic standards of Keyano College. We can be of assistance to you in disclosing your disability to your instructor, providing accommodations, and supporting your overall success at Keyano College.

Specialized Supports and Duty to Accommodate

Specialized Support and Duty to Accommodate are aligned with the office of Disability Support Services: Learner Assistance Program (LAP) guided by federal and provincial human rights legislation, and defined by a number of Keyano College policies. Keyano College is obligated by legislation to provide disability-related accommodations to students with identified disabilities to the point of undue hardship.
