Please Note:
Date and time allotted to each topic is subject to change. It is your responsibility as a student to contact the Office of the Registrar to complete the forms for Withdrawal or Change of Registration, and any other forms. Please refer to the list of important dates as noted in the Academic Schedule in the Keyano College Credit Calendar.

Performance Requirements

Throughout the course, you will complete a total of twelve informal writing assignments. Informal writing may involve responding to questions in paragraph form in class; researching and writing responses to questions outside class; or writing a personal or creative response to an assigned reading. I will grade the informal writing on a scale of 5, and at the end of the term, I will drop your two lowest grades.

Essays and the Film Analysis assignment must be submitted on the due date, which is always a Thursday. Essays handed in on Friday will be graded without additional comments and will also lose 10% up to 3 p.m., when they will be REFUSED. NO essays will be accepted after 3 p.m. on Friday.
Extensions will NOT be granted except under circumstances of bereavement or documented illness. Computer or printer failure is seldom an acceptable reason for granting an extension, and a conflict of deadlines is NEVER an acceptable reason. Essays and the Film Analysis must be typed in 12-pt Times New Roman, double spaced, and submitted with proper MLA documentation. Do NOT submit essays to me by e-mail or through Moodle. It is always preferable to hand an essay to me directly. Be sure to keep a copy of any essay that you hand in.

Student Attendance

Class attendance is useful for two reasons. First, class attendance maximizes a student's learning experience. Second, attending class is a good way to keep informed of matters relating to the administration of the course (e.g., the timing of assignments and exams). Ultimately, you are responsible for your own learning and performance in this course.

It is the responsibility of each student to be prepared for all classes. Students who miss classes are responsible for the material covered in those classes and for ensuring that they are prepared for the next class, including the completion of any assignments and/or notes that may be due.

Academic Misconduct

Students are considered to be responsible adults and should adhere to principles of intellectual integrity. Intellectual dishonesty may take many forms, such as:

- Plagiarism or the submission of another person’s work as one’s own
- The use of unauthorized aids in assignments or examinations (cheating)
- Collusion or the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing work
- The deliberate misrepresentation of qualifications
- The willful distortion of results or data
- Substitution in an examination by another person
- Handing in the same unchanged work as submitted for another assignment
- Breach of confidentiality.

The consequences for academic misconduct range from a verbal reprimand to expulsion from the College. More specific descriptions and details are found in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct section of the Keyano College 2015-2016 credit calendar. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct Policies.

In order to ensure your understanding of the concept of plagiarism, you must successfully complete the online tutorial found at https://www.indiana.edu/~istd/. Then print the certificate and show it to each of your instructors. Your course work will not be graded until you show this signed certificate.

Reading The Brothers Grimm To Jenny by Lisel Mueller (American, b. 1924)

Dead means somebody has to kiss you.

Jenny, your mind commands kingdoms of black and white:
you shoulder the crow on your left,
the snowbird on your right;
for you the cinders part and let the lentils through,
and noise falls into place as screech or sweet roo-coo, while in my own, real, world gray foxes and gray wolves bargain eye to eye,
and the amazing dove
takes shelter under the wing of the raven to keep dry.

Knowing that you must climb, one day, the ancient tower where disenchantment binds
the curls of innocence, that you must live with power
and honor circumstance, that choice is what comes true-- oh, Jenny, pure in heart, why do I lie to you?

Why do I read you tales in which birds speak the truth and pity cures the blind, and beauty reaches deep
to prove a royal mind?
Death is a small mistake
there, where the kiss revives;
Jenny, we make just dreams
out of our unjust lives.

Still, when your truthful eyes,
your keen, attentive stare, endow the vacuous slut
with royalty, when you match her soul to her shimmering hair, what can she do but rise
to your imagined throne?
And what can I, but see beyond the world that is,
when, faithful, you insist I have the golden key-- and learn from you once more the terror and the bliss,
the world as it might be?
