Students intending to transfer to other institutions require a ‘C-’ as a minimum grade. Transfer information on each course is available at the Alberta Council on Admission and Transfers.

Throughout the course, you will complete a total of ten informal writing assignments and reading quizzes. Informal writing may involve responding to questions in paragraph form in class; researching and writing responses to questions outside class; or writing a personal/creative response to an assigned reading. I will not mark the informal writing, but I will comment on it and note it as “done” or “not done.” In order to achieve credit for the quizzes, you must achieve a minimum standard on each. Quizzes and in-class writing will NOT necessarily be announced in advance.

Details will be provided about the Forum and Arts Conference grades.

Essays must be submitted on the due date, which is always a Thursday. Essays handed in on Friday lose 10%, until 3 p.m. NO essays will be accepted after 3 p.m. on Friday. Extensions will NOT be granted except under circumstances of bereavement or documented illness. Computer or printer failure is seldom an acceptable reason for granting an extension. Essays must be double spaced in 12 pt Times New Roman font and submitted with proper MLA documentation. Do NOT submit essays to me by e-mail. It is always preferable to hand an essay to me directly. Be sure to keep a copy of any essay that you hand in.

This course is supplemented by Moodle, an online course support tool. Assignments, readings and handouts will be posted on Moodle. Links will also be posted to readings and relevant websites on the internet. Lecture notes will not be posted; taking notes in class is an active form of participation. Please check the site frequently.

ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY

Students are expected to attend all lectures, to arrive on time and to remain for the duration of the class. You owe it to yourself, to the other students and to me as your instructor to attend regularly and punctually. If you are unable to attend, it is courteous to contact me in advance. Your cell phone must be turned OFF and put away during class.

EQUALITY, EQUITY AND RESPECT

Keyano College is committed to providing an environment of equality, equity and respect for all people within the College community. All members of this community are considered partners in developing teaching and learning contexts that are welcoming to all. Faculty, staff, and students are encouraged to use inclusive language to create a classroom atmosphere in which students' experiences and views are treated with equal respect in relation to their gender, ethnic and cultural background, and sexual orientation. Students should consult:

PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING

Every student expects to be treated and evaluated fairly in a course. Plagiarism and cheating robs everyone of this right.

No student may submit words, ideas or data of another student or person as his or her own in any writing, project, assignment, quiz, electronic presentation, exam etc. Any work used that is not the student's own must be clearly cited as belonging to someone else. There are penalties for using another's work and not citing it. The Student's Rights & Responsibilities document clearly outlines these penalties and the appeal process.

- No learner can obtain information from another student during an exam.
 - No learner can bring unauthorized information (paper or electronic) into an exam or quiz.
 - No student can submit work done in another course for grading in this course without the written prior approval of the course instructor.
 - No student can submit copyright protected or commercially produced materials as part or all of an assignment without proper citation & permission.

Picture-Books in Winter

Summer fading, winter comes--
Frosty mornings, tingling thumbs,
Window robins, winter rooks,
And the picture story-books.

Water now is turned to stone
Nurse and I can walk upon;
Still we find the flowing brooks
In the picture story-books.

All the pretty things put by,
Wait upon the children's eye,
Sheep and shepherds, trees and crooks,
In the picture story-books.

We may see how all things are
Seas and cities, near and far,
And the flying fairies' looks,
In the picture story-books.

How am I to sing your praise,
Happy chimney-corner days,
Sitting safe in nursery nooks,
Reading picture story-books?

- Robert Louis Stevenson (1850-1894)
