Assignments: Assignments are written assessments in this course. The purpose of the major assignment is to connect the historical material we cover in this class to a contemporary context. Put another way, you will answer the question of how do historical works impact contemporary art, culture and politics? There will be a dedicated assignment sheet for this which contains the full details.

Bi-weekly Quiz: These mandatory quizzes are intended to ensure students are keeping up with weekly readings and other class related activities (ie: watching videos, etc.). As such, there are unlimited attempts to complete the quiz successfully and all quizzes are open book. Only the highest grade will be kept. Quizzes will only be open until the end of the week in which it appears. Deadlines will be in Moodle

Discussions: Like the quizzes, participation in online discussions is mandatory. These discussions are a way for you to develop your critical thinking skills, and reflect upon the content in this class. The instructor will provide you with a prompt to initiate the and it is your responsibility to participate in the conversation along with your peers. You will be graded on your ability to demonstrate engagement with the discussion, which includes responding to your peers in a respectful manner.

Midterm and Final Exams: Both the midterm and final exams will be written online. Format for each is in Moodle.

Please refer to the important dates listed in the Academic Schedule in the Keyano College credit calendar. The Keyano College credit calendar also has information about Student Rights and the Code of Conduct. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and the Code of Conduct Policies.

Student Attendance

Class attendance is helpful for two reasons: First, class attendance maximizes a student's learning experience. Second, attending class is an excellent way to keep informed of matters relating to the course administration (e.g., the timing of assignments and exams). Ultimately, you are responsible for your learning and performance in this course. It is the responsibility of each student to be prepared for all classes. Absent students are responsible for the material covered in those classes, and students must ensure they are ready for their next class, including completing any missed assignments and notes.

Academic Misconduct

Students are considered responsible adults and should adhere to the principles of intellectual integrity. Intellectual dishonesty takes many forms:

- Plagiarism or the submission of another person's work as their own,
- The use of unauthorized aids in assignments or examinations (cheating),
- Collusion or the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing work,
- The deliberate misrepresentation of qualifications,
- The willful distortion of results or data,
- Substitution in an examination by another person,
- Submitting unchanged work for another assignment, and
- Breach of confidentiality.

The consequences for academic misconduct range from a verbal reprimand to expulsion from the College. More specific descriptions and details are found in the Student Rights and Code of Conduct section of the Keyano College credit calendar. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Code of Conduct Policies. To ensure your understanding of plagiarism, you may be required to complete the online Understanding Plagiarism tutorial and submit the certificate of completion.
