

BUS 232, Corporate Finance

3 credits, 4 hours lecture

Course Description

Corporate Finance investigates the corporation's perspective on financing and investment decisions. The financing decision, current asset management, and short-term financing are examined as components of working capital management. Capital budgeting decisions consider the time value of money, stock and bond valuations and returns, cost of capital and risk. Finally, capital markets, the underwriting process, debt and lease financing, stock financing, dividend policy, and derivatives are investigated as part of long-term financing.
