Participation
On some class days, there will be a discussion on selected primary sources or articles. In a history course, discussion is essential to students’ comprehension of the topic. Student participation will be measured based on frequency, accuracy and interpretation. Participation will be counted in class and on the course’s Moodle discussions. ATTENDANCE IS NOT A FACTOR IN MEASURING PARTICIPATION.

Essay and Essay Proposal
There are two primary assignments due in class, both mandatory. For the first assignment, students will write an essay proposal, which is due Oct. 28. Students will be required to show that they can conduct preliminary research and analysis. The essay will require students to use primary and secondary sources to analyze a particular event/concept in Early Modern World History. A list of suggested topics will be provided, if a student wishes to write on a topic not listed, he or she will have to get the approval of the instructor. It is recommended that students use the text of primary sources provided as a starting point for research, but other research into primary sources is welcome. The essay will be 2000-2500 words or 8-10 pages in length (typed, double-spaced, 12 point font). Three primary sources and two secondary sources will be required. Essays are due at the beginning of class on Nov. 30. Late essays will have 10% per day deducted from the final mark. Extensions may be granted if the student discusses the issue with the instructor before the assignment is due. If the student fails to ask for an extension, they will not receive any leeway regarding the final mark. Essays, footnotes/endnotes and bibliographies must be formatting according to the Chicago Manual of Style.

Response Papers
On some class days, there will be a discussion on selected primary sources or articles. Over the term, students will be required to submit THREE (3) response papers of 1-2 pages in length identifying what you feel the significance of the document/article is. You may find additional information to support your thinking. Each response paper will be due at the beginning of the indicated discussion. They will not be accepted afterwards. Students are only allowed to submit one response paper per week.

ALL ASSIGNMENTS ARE MANDATORY. IF ASSIGNMENTS ARE NOT HANDED IN A STUDENT MAY RECEIVE A FAILING GRADE. Late assignments will have 10% per EVERY SINGLE day later deducted from the final mark.

Performance Requirements

Student Responsibilities

It is your responsibility as a student to contact the Office of the Registrar to complete the forms for Withdrawal or Change of Registration, and any other forms. Please refer to the list of important dates as noted in the Academic Schedule in the Keyano College credit calendar.

More specific details are found in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct section of the Keyano College credit calendar. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct Policies.

Student Attendance

Class attendance is useful for two reasons. First, class attendance maximizes a students' learning experience. Second, attending class is a good way to keep informed of matters relating to the administration of the course (e.g., the timing of assignments and exams). Ultimately, you are responsible for your own learning and performance in this course.

It is the responsibility of each student to be prepared for all classes. Students who miss classes are responsible for the material covered in those classes and for ensuring that they are prepared for the next class, including the completion of any assignments and / or notes that may be due.

Academic Misconduct

Students are considered to be responsible adults and should adhere to principles of intellectual integrity. Intellectual dishonesty may take many forms, such as:

- Plagiarism or the submission of another person’s work as one’s own
- The use of unauthorized aids in assignments or examinations (cheating)
- Collusion or the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing work
- The deliberate misrepresentation of qualifications
- The willful distortion of results or data
- Substitution in an examination by another person
- Handing in the same unchanged work as submitted for another assignment
- Breach of confidentiality.
The consequences for academic misconduct range from a verbal reprimand to expulsion from the College. More specific descriptions and details are found in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct section of the Keyano College credit calendar. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct Policies.

In order to ensure your understanding of the concept of plagiarism, you must successfully complete the online tutorial found on ilearn.keyano.ca. Then print the certificate, sign it, and show it to each of your instructors. Your course work will not be graded until you show this signed certificate.
