

EA 212, Exceptionality I Brain/Cognitive

1 credit, 3 hours per week

Course Description

This course examines the theoretical and educational concepts associated with students with exceptionalities in Alberta to include the following: Specific Learning Disabilities (SLP), Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (AD/HD), Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD), Developmental Delays (DD), Global Developmental Delay (GDD), Intellectual Disabilities (IDD), Auditory Processing Deficit (APD), and Sensory Integration Dysfunction. The role of the special needs educational assistant is considered in context of programming and serving students based on educational need rather than clinical label. As such, aspects such as accommodations, strategies, physical changes to the environment, and the use of assistive technology are considered essential elements of the Educational Assistant's toolbox in order to adapt learning activities and materials for students with a range of academic, emotional and physical challenges.

Performance Requirements

Student Responsibilities

It is your responsibility as a student to contact the Office of the Registrar to complete the forms for Withdrawal or Change of Registration, and any other forms. Please refer to the list of important dates as noted in the Academic Schedule in the Keyano College credit calendar. The Keyano College credit calendar also has information about Student Rights and Code of Conduct. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Code of Conduct Policies.

Student Attendance

Class attendance is useful for two reasons. First, class attendance maximizes a student's learning experience. Second, attending class is a good way to keep informed of matters relating to the administration of the course (e.g., the timing of assignments and exams). Ultimately, you are responsible for your own learning and performance in this course.

It is the responsibility of each student to be prepared for all classes. Students who miss classes are responsible for the material covered in those classes and for ensuring that they are prepared for the next class, including the completion of any assignments and notes that may be due.

Academic Misconduct

Students are considered to be responsible adults and should adhere to principles of intellectual integrity. Intellectual dishonesty may take many forms, such as:

- Plagiarism or the submission of another person's work as one's own;
- The use of unauthorized aids in assignments or examinations (cheating);
- Collusion or the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing work;
- The deliberate misrepresentation of qualifications;
- The willful distortion of results or data;
- Substitution in an examination by another person;
- Handing in the same unchanged work as submitted for another assignment; and
- Breach of confidentiality.

The consequences for academic misconduct range from a verbal reprimand to expulsion from the College. More specific descriptions and details are found in the Student Rights and Code of Conduct section of the Keyano College credit calendar. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Code of Conduct Policies.

In order to ensure your understanding of the concept of plagiarism, you must successfully complete the online tutorial found on ilearn.keyano.ca. Then print the certificate, sign it, and show it to each of your instructors. Your course work may not be graded until you show this signed certificate.
