Class attendance is mandatory for students in the social work program. The Chair of the program will be aware of students with multiple absences. You may be requested to provide a note from your doctor.

Academic Misconduct

Students must adhere to principles of intellectual integrity. Intellectual dishonesty may occur as:

- Plagiarism or the submission of another person’s work as one’s own
- The use of unauthorized aids in assignments or examinations
- Unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing work
- The deliberate misrepresentation of qualifications
- The willful distortion of results or data
- Substitution in an examination by another person

Penalties for academic offences may range from a verbal reprimand to dismissal from the College.

Student Preparation

It is the responsibility of each student to be prepared for all classes. Students who miss classes are responsible for the material covered in those classes, and for ensuring that they are prepared for the next class, including the completion of any assignments and/or notes that may be due.
Plagiarism
Plagiarism is the act of submitting someone else’s work as your own. For example, copying material from the Internet, a book or other source without acknowledging that the words or ideas are someone else’s and not your own. Please see the Student Rights and Responsibilities document, regarding Academic Misconduct in the 2016-2017 Credit Calendar.

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities
The College will provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities in order to promote academic success. If you require accommodation, contact the Learner Assistance Program (LAP) Office at 780-792-5608 to initiate the process for documenting, assessing and implementing your individual accommodation needs.
