Course Specific Policies

1. Attendance Policy: This course is designed as a face-to-face course adapted for remote delivery, so success is improved by being on time and regularly attending. Extended or frequent absences for any reason need to be discussed with your instructor because of the potential impact on your overall mark (see Class Preparation Rubric). Additionally, a planned extended absence, at any time in the semester, must be discussed with the Chair of the program, Lisa Turner at lisa.turner@keyano.ca, prior to said absence. Most importantly, be sure to communicate with your instructor. The best way for handling an occasional lecture absence is to contact a classmate from your group for details regarding what you have missed.
2. Electronic Devices Policy: electronic devices, including headphones/earbuds/watches and the like, must be properly managed once a Zoom class has started. Let the instructor know if you must temporarily be engaged in another activity while Zoom class is in progress. (To enhance our online experience, Zoom meeting invitations or links for our class are not to be posted on social media or other sharing platform(s)). Zoom etiquette is a key part of a great remote delivery learning experience and contributes to your Class Preparation marks as well as to your overall course marks.

3. Work Hand in Policy: assigned work, such as essays and Moodle Forum postings must be digitally submitted on the due date. Deadlines for submitting work digitally will be visible for each assignment posted on Moodle. Work will receive
   - the earned grade when received at the beginning of class on the due date.
   - the earned grade if handed in early. Yes. You can hand in your essay or project early.
   - 10% off the earned grade for each day late including the day it is due, if received after the due date and time. You will be given plenty of time to organize your hand-in time, so plan accordingly and avoid, for example, the potential issues of uploading items at the last minute. Click all of the submit buttons to upload an assignment. Be sure to scroll all the way down the page.
   - ensure that you have read and understood the concept of plagiarism before you upload any assigned work (see Academic Misconduct in the next section of this course outline and the PDF files posted in the introduction section of our Moodle course) All digitally submitted work will be checked for plagiarism on Moodle. Grammarly.com and other digital grammar checkers are not permitted. Your mark can be affected if these grammar checkers or other digital writing assistants show up in the plagiarism checker report. Keep your writing original and your own. If you borrow the ideas, words, phrases, or quotations of others use a proper citation.

4. Course Policies and Procedures: A core expectation of this class is that you will be able to meaningfully participate in its educational activities. This means being clear that each student, including yourself, is here for different academic/career goals and reasons. More specifically, this course is an important program pre-requisite for many students. So, for the benefit of your classmates, it is crucial to always demonstrate that you are a student in the class by establishing and maintaining your reputation as a student with the instructor and with your fellow students. This includes refraining from hindering or compromising your educational experience or that of others. You will need to do the following to ensure your and other's success:
   - Students should be as ready as possible for learning during scheduled classes (see Class Preparation Rubric). Get the most from the learning opportunities a college upgrading class provides. You have joined a group of adult students with wide ranging educational backgrounds, steps from pursuing career training that can change their lives and the lives of others. Enjoy the class, participate in the class, and focus on maintaining a respectful, close, team/family-like atmosphere with your classmates and instructor at all times. Be mindful of the potential negative impact of side conversations and other disruptions on class focus while instruction is going on or a student presentation is being given.
   - Required texts are required equipment for the course. It is recommended that you make the necessary arrangements to acquire the texts, which are specifically intended to provide the foundation for your learning of the course material. The majority of course learning activities depend on having a text to work from.
   - Arrive on time for class. Consistently late arrival to class, including last minute arrival, disrupts the learning experience for you and for others and shows that you are not prepared for class. Communication with the instructor for occasional late arrival that is beyond your control and for consistently late arrival to class is required. Extenuating circumstances can be accommodated at the instructor's discretion. For example, delays caused by temporary technical difficulties and other valid, unexpected events.
   - Your job or other commitments versus attending to the course. Consider it carefully, if it is an issue. Reduced marks will be given on missed work/attendance for student presentations, without an acceptable excuse (excuse paper, acceptable documentation) for the absence. Students who do not contact the instructor within 24 hours of the missed assignment will receive a mark of zero for any assignments/tests that are given. Make-up assessments/assignments/quizzes will not be given. However, students who have missed a major assessment, such as a mid-term exam are permitted to do an alternative assessment within one week of returning to class, providing they have contacted the instructor within 24 hours of the missed assessment and they have provided valid/acceptable documented evidence, such as an excuse paper, to support their absence from the assessment. See the Credit Calendar for policy regarding missing a Final examination; contact with the instructor regarding the absence is an important prompt first step and must take place within the specified timeline in the Credit Calendar.

5. Other Course Policies and Procedures:

a. the majority of our work is done following the weekly schedule outlined on Moodle. To assist you in staying motivated with your remote learning, deadlines will be posted for all work that is digitally submitted. In addition, we will have scheduled Zoom meetings to help keep you on track toward successful completion of the course.

b. any work showing evidence of copying, copy paste, or plagiarism is a serious academic infraction. (see also “Student Rights and Responsibilities” in the Credit Calendar).

c. This course will build on skills that you are already expected to have based on being accepted to this course. Therefore, this is not a remedial English course. To improve your English skills, extra practice through your own initiative in class discussions (Forum posts) and extra work on practice exercises from our workbooks and texts will be recommended by the instructor throughout the course.

d. avoid scheduling appointments during class time, including online in-college appointments. Exceptions may apply. Talk with your instructor.

e. a missed exam may be written at an alternate time only under certain exceptional circumstances, at the instructor’s discretion. The instructor must be contacted within 24 hours of the scheduled exam, and acceptable documentation (e.g. a doctor’s note) provided.

f. the final exam will be written on the date scheduled by the College; otherwise, the procedure for “Deferred Final Examination” in the Credit Calendar is to be followed.

If, for any reason, you feel that you may be unable to follow the course specific policies as prescribed in this course outline including, for example, the electronic devices policy or Zoom etiquette expectations, please arrange for a meeting with the program Chair immediately.

Performance Requirements

Student Responsibilities

It is your responsibility as a student to contact the Office of the Registrar to complete the forms for Withdrawal or Change of Registration, and any other forms. Please refer to the list of important dates as noted in the Academic Schedule in the Keyano College credit calendar.

More specific details are found in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct section of the Keyano College credit calendar. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct Policies.

Student Attendance

Class attendance is useful for two reasons. First, class attendance maximizes a student’s learning experience. Second, attending class is a good way to keep informed of matters relating to the administration of the course (e.g., the timing of assignments and exams). Ultimately, you are responsible for your own learning and performance in this course.
It is the responsibility of each student to be prepared for all classes. Students who miss classes are responsible for the material covered in those classes and for ensuring that they are prepared for the next class, including the completion of any assignments and/or notes that may be due (see item 4.d., above, in Course Policies and Procedures).

Academic Misconduct

Students are considered to be responsible adults and should adhere to principles of intellectual integrity. Intellectual dishonesty may take many forms, such as:

- Plagiarism: to present another person’s ideas, writing, artistic work, drawings, images, data, etcetera, as one’s own (zero tolerance for plagiarism)
- Presenting another person’s substantial writing changes/edits to an assignment/essay on a handed-in assignment that you claim to have written (plagiarism)
- The use of unauthorized aids in assignments or examinations (cheating)
- Collusion or the unauthorized collaboration (working together) with others in preparing work and then handing in the assignment/essay as if it was your own (plagiarism)
- The deliberate misrepresentation of qualifications
- The willful distortion of results or data
- Substitution in an examination by another person
- Handing in the same unchanged work as submitted for another assignment or class (plagiarism)
- Breach of confidentiality
- Copying/cutting and pasting, paraphrasing or summarizing another person’s work (including information found on the Internet and unpublished materials) without proper referencing (plagiarism). Proper referencing must include providing proper citations (see MLA or APA reference manual/resources — available from the College Library or in the required texts for the course) Proper paraphrasing and summarizing of another person’s work along with providing a citation for your source is a key part of avoiding plagiarism.

The consequences for academic misconduct range from a verbal reprimand to receiving zero on the assignment/essay to expulsion from the College. More specific descriptions and details are found in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct section of the Keyano College credit calendar. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Student Code of Conduct Policies.

In order to ensure your understanding of the concept of plagiarism, be sure you have read the course PDFs on plagiarism and check with your instructor, if you have questions.
