Message FROM THE PRESIDENT

The Keyano Gala will return this Fall for its 42nd year. Guests will gather for a spectacular night out, supporting higher learning and collegiate athletics in the region.

Events such as the Keyano Gala are made possible by the support of donors such as you, who invest so graciously in our region. Your ongoing support of Keyano College enables a learning legacy that enhances our students and their future success.

Because of our supporters' kindness, many changes and improvements have taken place on campus in recent years, including the restoration of 25 student housing units, a tub room for the Nursing program, a Physics lab renovation, the addition of a world-class E-Sports arena, and the introduction of a new SIM Ambulance coming this Fall. We hope that our focus on creating a more accessible, inclusive, and welcoming campus will entice more students to choose to study at Keyano College and make Fort McMurray their home.

Your kindness has also allowed us to lead among institutions in the number of student scholarships available; because of donors' generosity, we distribute almost half a million dollars in scholarships and bursaries each year. Thank you for investing in your future employees and leaders.

Please accept my heartfelt appreciation for your consideration of sponsorship for this year's Gala. Our team is doing fantastic work to ensure that we host this important college fundraiser, and your sponsorship is an essential part of its success. Thank you in advance, and I look forward to seeing you on November 4, 2023.

Live ENTERTAINMENT

With 3x Platinum, 2x Gold-certified albums, 10x Gold singles, and 16x top-10 radio hits to his credit, Brett Kissel, has had an extraordinary rise to superstardom in the Canadian country music scene since his first single release a decade ago in 2012. When the world pressed pause in 2020, Kissel put his foot on the gas pedal, with a steady stream of hit songs, and some impressive award show victories, including winning his 22nd CCMA award in London in 2021, and accepting his third JUNO Award this past May in Toronto, for his critically acclaimed album 'What Is Life?'. Having toured with icons Garth Brooks and Brad Paisley, Kissel has learned the tricks of the trade from the best in the business and has established himself as one of Canada's most beloved entertainers. Kissel is also well known for his outside-the-box collaborations, which have led to some extremely unique duets featuring Grammy winners: Charley Pride, Dave Mustaine, Nelly, and legendary R&B group — 98 Degrees. Kissel is currently working on what he explains is the most extravagant recording project of his life — a new multi-album package titled 'The Compass Project.' The first album, South Album, released January 27th. His current radio single 'Never have I Ever' has accumulated over 5 million global streams.
