Heading Levels

- Headings appear within the body of the document. The formatting and heading levels will depend on the information presented and the type of document.
- Levels 1 and 2 have all major words capitalized. The text appears on the next line.
- Levels 3-5 will end the heading with a period. The text will follow on the same line. Capitalize only the first word of the heading, excluding proper nouns.
- E.g. Level 1: The Heading is Centered and Bold.

Level 2: The Heading is Flush Left and Bold

Level 3: The heading is indented and bold

Level 4: The heading is indented, bold, italicized

Level 5: The heading is indented and italicized

For more information, please consult pages 62 to 63 in the APA Manual.

Seriation

- Series may be presented in sentences, numbered lists, or bulleted lists
- Numbered lists:
  - Separate sentences in a series by an Arabic numeral followed by a period
  - Capitalize the first word of each sentence or item in the series
- Sentences or paragraphs:
  - Present elements in a series with lowercase letter(s) in parentheses
  - Use commas to separate three or more elements within a sentence
  - If a sentence already has internal commas, instead separate using semicolons
- Bulleted lists:
  - Present items in a series using bullet points that should not be placed in any type of ordinal position
    - Capitalize and punctuate each item in the series appropriately. Finish each item in the series with a period.
  - Bullet points are also used when presenting within a sentence with three or more elements in a series
    - Capitalize and punctuate the list as if it were a complete sentence (place a period at the end of the final item in the series)

For more information, please consult pages 63 to 65 in the APA Manual.

Figures and Tables

- Number all tables and figures in the order in which they are presented in text
• For every table provide a title which describes the contents of the table
• Do not provide titles for figures
• Use Arabic numerals for labelling (e.g. Table 5 or Figure 5)
• All figures and tables must be referred to in text
• Tables and figures cited in text must have a complete entry in the Reference List
• Notes describing the figure or table should be placed below the table or figure
• Italicize note (e.g. Note.)
• After the figure # the following information should be provided: Title of work, by author, date, retrieved from. Date of copyright by copyright holder.

For more information, please consult pages 125 to 167 in the APA Manual.

Reference Format

The reference list must include the following formatting:
• Double space all references
• References cited in text must appear in the reference list. This only excludes personal communications and secondary sources
• All entries in the reference list are organized alphabetically, by author’s last name or by title if there is no author
• If two or more entries are by the same author(s), list the entries in chronological order (oldest first)
• Each entry must be formatted with a hanging indent (0.5 inch or 1.27 cm).
  o To create a hanging indent in Microsoft Word: Right Click, select Paragraph from list, a box will open and select Hanging from the drop down menu labelled Special.
• There are two different DOI numbers, either is correct: doi:10.1037/rmh0000000 or http://dx.doi.org/10.1037/rmh0000000
• If no DOI is available, provide the homepage URL of the Journal
• If no publication date is available, use the abbreviation (n.d.)
• When citing books, capitalize only the first word of the title and subtitle as well as any proper nouns
• When citing periodicals, capitalize all major words of the name of the periodical

For more information, please consult pages 180 to 224 in the APA Manual.

In-text Citations

A citation describes the resource where you found the ideas that you present in your writing. When citing a specific part of a source, identify the point in text where the information was retrieved from. All in-text citation information must correlate to their reference entry which is found in the reference list at the end of a paper.

• When using quotations, always indicate the location in text where the quotation is found (e.g. Austen, 1813, p. 35)
• If a page number is not available, provide the paragraph or chapter.
• Page number and paragraph will be abbreviated (e.g. p. 218, pp. 218-220, or para. 6), whereas chapter is not (e.g. Chapter 10).
Whether paraphrasing or directing quoting ideas, there are two general manners in which the citations are presented: narrative or parenthetical.

- Presenting information about the source of the idea or quote in sentence is the process of writing a narrative or in the sentence citation
  - E.g. Author last name (s) (Publication year)
  - E.g. Corporate author (Publication date) “…….” (para. #)

- Presenting information about the source following the idea or quote is the process of presenting a parenthetical citation
  - E.g. (Editor last name(s), publication year)
  - E.g. “…….”(Author last name(s), publication year, p. #)

Quotations and Paraphrasing

- Paraphrasing is rewording an author’s idea(s) into your own words. When citing a paraphrased idea, a page number is not required (e.g. Health Canada (2018) recently published studies that have found…).

- Direct Quotation is using the author’s exact words in your writing. To identify the author and location of quote, provide the last name(s) of the author(s), the publication date, as well as page, paragraph, chapter, etc. in text (e.g. Recent studies confirm that “…” (Health Canada, 2018, para. 2)).

Block Quotations

- Use a block quotation is the quotation is more than 40 words.
- To format a block quotation begin the quotation on a new line and indent the text. Quotation marks are omitted.
