STAYING IN CANADA

Process Steps

01 Get a study permit & successfully complete your study at Keyano College

02 Apply for a post-graduation work permit (PGWP)

03 Work for up to three years

04 Apply to become a permanent resident

Post-Graduate Work Permit Program (PGWP)

The Post-Graduation Work Permit (PGWP) Program enables students who have successfully graduated from eligible Canadian designated learning institutions (DLIs) to obtain an open work permit to gain invaluable Canadian work experience. This real-world training acquired through the program plays a crucial role in helping new graduates meet the work experience criteria for various permanent residency programs in Canada. The length of the Post-Graduation Work Permit is typically determined based on the duration of the student's program of study for international students.

- At least 8 months and less than 2 years (example: certificate programs):
  Up to one year PGWP
- 2 years or longer (example: diploma and bachelor's programs):
  Three years PGWP

For more information and the most up-to-date information on PGWP eligibility and other criteria, visit keyano.ca/PGWP

Pathways to permanent residency

Upon graduation, international students have a multitude of pathways to explore for obtaining permanent residency in Canada. Some of the most common and promising options include Canadian Express Class and other Canadian Express Entry Programs, Provincial Nominee Programs for Alberta, and Workforce Immigration and Support Program for Fort McMurray Residents/Workers.

Alberta Advantage Immigration Programs (AAIP)

The Alberta Immigrant Nominee Program (AINP) is an important economic immigration initiative that aims to nominate individuals intending to settle in Alberta for permanent residency. This program offers various For more detailed information on provincial nominee programs, please visit the Government of Alberta's website: alberta.ca/alberta-advantage-immigration-program.

Workforce Immigration & Support Program (WISP)

The WISP Fort McMurray's community approach to the Government of Alberta's Rural Renewal Stream. The program is geared towards graduate international students at Keyano College, temporary workers, and newcomers on a work visa by assisting local employers with the current labour shortage. For more information, check out the website: fmwb.ca/WISP.
